NEWSY NEWS

by Ralph F. Cummings

We understand that the Flair Magazine quits in January 1951 after a 12 month run. This is a 50c magazine. The rising costs of paper, and so forth, they just had to give it up.

Emerson Bennett, the author of boys stories in Saturday Night, and others, came from Springfield, Mass., and went out to Ohio, so I understand his stuff is pretty scarce out there.

H. H. Bro. Members across the water, over in England, such as H. Steele, J. V. B. Stewart Hunter, A. W. Lawson, Vincent A. Baxendale, can pay their 1951 H. H. Bro. dues to John Meadway, 64 Woodlands Rd., Ilford, Essex, England, also any others over there may do so too. That will save them the trouble of trying to get money out of Great Britain.

The Star in December Roundup in front of members were for those who had sent in their dues between Nov. 28 and Dec. 28th. Sorry I failed to mention this.
